4. An adequate showing of the cause of the delay, and that the entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date of the reply until the filing of a grantable petition under 37 CFR §1.137(a) was unavoidable, is explained in detail below:

On August 22, 1997 the above identified patent application was filed with an unsigned declaration erroneously indicating our mailing address as: 5 Hamilton Avenue, Suite 200, Palo Alto, California 94301, when the correct address should have been: 285 Hamilton Avenue, Suite 200, Palo Alto, California 94301.

After receiving the return postcard (copy enclosed) indicating the application had been assigned United States Serial No. 08/918,537 and had been granted the filing date of August 22, 1997, no additional correspondence was received from the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO").

On March 13, 1998, a status request of application was filed (copy enclosed) which indicated our correct mailing address. No response was received from the USPTO.

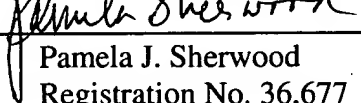

On March 29, 2000, a Change of Correspondence Address was filed (copy enclosed) indicating our new address as: 200 Middlefield Road, Suite 200, Menlo Park, California 94025. No response was received at either of the addresses for Bozicevic, Field & Francis.

In view of the above mentioned efforts to provide a correct address and determine the status of the above-captioned application, the Commissioner is respectfully requested to grant this Petition to Revive an Application abandoned unavoidably 37 C.F.R. §1.137(a).

The Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge the fee under 37 C.F.R. § 1.17 (l) and/or any other fee required by this paper to Deposit Account No. 50-0815.
